

Tartar Teen Talk

By SHARON CLARK

On Tuesday, May 5th, the Annual Spring Girl's Athletic Assoc. Banquet was held. The theme for this semester's banquet was "The Gay 90's." Janet Noone served as mistress of ceremonies, welcoming the guests and introducing the entertainment. The honored guests attending were Mr. Carl Ahee, Mr. Leonard Lifton, Mr. Mark Caldwell, and Mr. Gordon Johnston. Entertainment was provided by Barbara Davis who sang "My Blue Heaven," Pat Travis and Carole Moore who did a pantomime to "A Sweet Old-Fashioned Girl," and a Beauty Shop Quartet made up of Connie Zimmerman, Paula Blankenship, Judy Meadows, and Jean Spall who sang a medley of old songs.

THE NEW cabinet for the fall semester of next year was announced. Janet Noone and Kathy Reed will serve as president and vice-president for the coming semester. It was then announced that Kathy Reed was chosen as best player of the year, and Carole Moore received the Honor Plaque as outstanding member of GAA. The freshmen members served as hostesses. The Sophomores were the prize of the most original table decorations. A wonderful evening was had by all who attended, and the banquet proved to be a big success.

WEDNESDAY, May 6th, THIS held an aud-call after first period. A film, "Flight to the Soviet," was narrated by Mr. Russ Potter. Mr. Potter and two other photographers had made the film in Russia in 1956. The film and narration was very interesting, and gave the students a view of Russian life which is not often seen.

ON FRIDAY, May 8th, THIS held the first of the student body nomination aud-calls. This aud-call was held during fifth period, and those students running for class offices gave their campaign speeches. The students running for Student Body Officers and Girl's and Boy's League Offices will give their speeches on May 15th.
